

StrongerBC Future Ready Action Plan

Rapid Response Training – Micro-Credential Initiatives

Presentation for CETABC Forum – June 5, 2024

Chad Doerksen, Director, Post-Secondary Policy

Investing in Workforce Development through the StrongerBC Future Ready Action Plan

People seeking post-secondary education

People looking to reskill for in demand jobs

People facing barriers

Indigenous Peoples

People new to B.C.

The StrongerBC: Future Ready Action Plan represents the largest investment in skills training, talent development, and workforce readiness that BC has had in generations.

Micro-Credentials

Micro-credentials recognize stand-alone, short duration learning experiences that are competency-based, align with industry, employer, community and/or Indigenous community needs and can be assessed and recognized for employment or learning purposes.

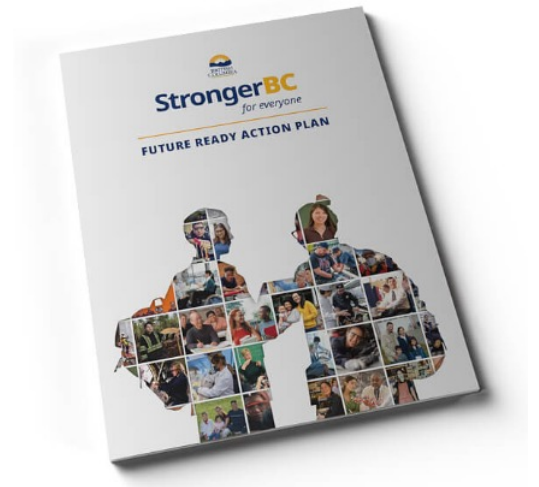

Work to-date

- 180+ Micro-credentials funded
- Micro-Credential Framework
- Micro-Credential Toolkit
- Program listings on EducationPlannerBC
- Micro-Credential Assessment for Credit Pathways Pilot
- Collaboration Framework Pilot

Rapid Response Training Micro-Credential Initiatives

- Clear and accessible learner pathways
- Collaborative and coordinated approach
- High-quality, relevant, responsive

Rapid Response Training Micro-Credential Initiatives

Year 1 – 2023/24 – Call for Proposals

- Shared Curriculum
- Stackable Micro-Credentials
- First Nations Micro-Credentials

Rapid Response Training Micro-Credential Initiatives

- Strong partnerships with industry and communities
- Responsiveness to labour market demand
- Clear learning pathways and employment outcomes

Standalone and Stackable

Accessible (affordable,
short duration, flexible delivery)

Specific and Relevant

Questions?

Contact:

PSFS.MicroCredentials@gov.bc.ca

Chad Doerksen

Director, Post-Secondary Policy

Chad.Doerksen@gov.ca